

Catholic Futures

More than one reason to choose a Catholic School education.

According to a recent survey the following statements are the top nine reasons why parents from our 37 schools send their children to a Catholic school.

- Being accredited by the nation's leading accrediting organization for K - 12 schools.
- Providing a safer environment with less intimidation than public schools.
- Having excellent core curriculum based on national standards.
- Providing the exposure to the Word of God everyday, including regular Mass and confession.
- Producing generally better high school and college achievement than public schools.
- Promoting the Catholic Church's teaching on social and moral issues.
- Having teachers who are excellent role models.
- Encouraging parent involvement.
- Promoting Catholic faith and values.
